

Transmission of academic values in Asian Studies Workshop
APCD Lecture Theatre, Hedley Bull Building no. 130 (cnr Liversidge Street and Garran Road)
The Australian National University, Canberra
PROGRAM

Thursday, 25 June 2009

8.30am Coffee & Registration

9.00am Welcome

9.30am Session 1: The changing academic world
Chair: Professor Robert Cribb

Yeoman to Peasant: An Intellectual Journey
Professor Howard Dick, University of Melbourne

Institutionalization and Transformation of the Social Sciences in Japan
Professor Toshio Iyotani, Hitotsubashi University

Transmission of academic values in Asian Studies in the Netherlands: uncertain scholars?
Dr Freek Colombijn, VU University

11.00am Morning Tea

11.30am Session 2: Mentoring
Chair: Professor Catherine Falk

Partnerships between academic Seniors and Juniors: the role of each other's perceived integrity for their resultant academic karma and reputation
Dr Matthew Ciolek, The Australian National University

Blurry boundaries: Supervisory relationships in collaborative scholarly communities
Ms Thushara Dibley & Dr Michele Ford, The University of Sydney

Graduate students and Professors: Who innovates: who conserves?
Professor Tony Reid, National University of Singapore

Between a dream and a reality in the making: American vs Australian PhD
Dr Rommel Curaming, National University of Singapore

ABSTRACTS

1.00pm Lunch

2.00pm Session 3: Engagement
Chair: Dr Michael Barr

Being an apologist: The Cornell Paper and a debate between friends
Dr Jemma Purdey, Monash University

The transition from academic research to involvement in the formulation of national policies: a
Philippine perspective
Mr Lowell Bautista, University of Wollongong

'Merely' academic: critical responses to Australian - Asian fiction
Dr Alison Broinowski, University of Wollongong

3.30pm Afternoon Tea

4.00pm Session 4: Networks and Technology
Chair: Professor Robert Cribb

Asian Networks vs. Asian-Studies Networks
Dr Niv Horesh, University of New South Wales

Transmitting scholarly values online: The New Mandala experience
Dr Andrew Walker and Mr Nicholas Farrelly, The Australian National University

From Artisan studio to Science factory
A half-century of Asian studies in the Netherlands observed
Professor Emeritus Otto van den Muijzenberg, University of Amsterdam

5.30pm Close

6.45pm Bus leaves from University House for dinner venue

7.00pm Workshop Dinner: Turkish Pide House Restaurant, cnr Barry Drive and Moore Street

ABSTRACTS

Friday, 26 June 2009

9.00am Session 5: Research Basics
Chair: Dr Michele Ford

Building a theoretic-conceptual understanding as a scholarly value: A Malaysian experience
Professor Shamsul AB, National University of Malaysia

Literatures, languages, histories
Associate Professor Helen Creese, University of Queensland

Singapore: a centre of mediocrity posing as a centre of excellence
Dr Michael Barr, Flinders University

Community, Areas and Thought in Area Studies Today
Dr Mark Winchester, Hitotsubashi University

10.30am Morning Tea

11.00am Session 6: Early Career Researchers
Chair: Dr Niv Horesh

Language and Learning: commitments to the Asian Studies and the future
Dr Laura Dales, University of South Australia

Academic borders
Ms Anna Doukakis, University of New South Wales

12.00 noon Lunch

ABSTRACTS

1.00pm Session 7: Ethics
Chair: Dr Andrew Walker

Research ethics: Cross cultural perspective of research ethics in Southeast Asia
Dr Mary Ditton, University of New England

From intangible cultural heritage to collectable artefact: ethical responsibilities in ethnomusicological research

Professor Catherine Falk & Ms Catherine Ingram, University of Melbourne

Ethical issues in social science research in developing countries: useful or symbolic
Mr Julius Mollet, Flinders University

Is there a universal ethics: challenges of informed consent in healthcare research in South India?
Ms Shyamala Nataraj, Monash University

Does your research interest me? The need for a change in ethical paradigms when conducting research overseas

Dr Nuno Vasco Oliveira, República Democrática de Timor-Leste

3.00pm Wrap-up and Afternoon Tea

We would like to acknowledge the generous financial support received from the ARC Asia Pacific Futures Research Network, for this workshop.

We also acknowledge financial support received from The Australian Academy of Humanities and The Australian National University, for this workshop